

What is the Added Value?

Synergy for Impact

- Increasing the development impact in the target countries by synergizing the experiences and resources of all three parties from their bilateral and regional cooperation, and thereby also creating new development solutions

Regional Integration

- Supporting regional cooperation, integration and harmonization between the Southeast Asian countries in order to lower the development gap in the region

Strategic Partnership for Sustainable Development

- Promoting mutual learning and experience sharing as well as enhancing the role of Thailand and Germany in development cooperation in the region

Main Implementing Agencies

TICA

Thailand International Development Cooperation Agency (TICA) was established by a Royal Decree to serve the Royal Thai Government as a focal agency under the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Thailand in administering international development cooperation under the bilateral, multilateral, and regional cooperation frameworks for the advancement of socioeconomic development in other developing countries.

GIZ

Owned by the German government, the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH provides services in the field of international cooperation for sustainable development. GIZ operates in more than 130 countries. In Thailand the cooperation covers bilateral, trilateral and regional cooperation with a focus on the ASEAN integration process. Besides implementing projects, GIZ also provides services for seminars, trainings and policy forums.
