

Multi-Stakeholder Dialogues: Designing and Orchestrating Processes in National and Local Contexts

Date: 27–29 July 2016

Venue: Bangkok

Course fees: 1400 EUR*

*including training materials and documents, lunch and snack throughout the training

Number of participants: up to 12

About the trainer:

Susanne Arlinghaus

is for more than 10 years independent consultant, accompanying institutional cooperation processes and negotiations, consulting and conducting diverse activities in management and team development and training consultants in these areas. Working with ministries, NGO and private sector in Germany and at international level. She has a background in economics and political science with long term further training in systemic consultancy.

Learning Objectives

At the end of the training, the participants will have

- increased their skills in analyzing and interpreting actor networks and relating interests in the context of their country of operation;
- known how to position themselves within the network of interrelating stakeholder interests, and they can develop strategies of action for their partners and themselves;
- learned how to design a process architecture to initiate and accompany social dialogue processes;
- known different event designs and moderation techniques to successfully plan and carry out dialogue events and activities of different complexity.

Who should attend this training?

National and international executives, directors, managerial staff and (senior) project managers from private companies and public organizations working in multi-stakeholder environments.

This training is suitable to invite your partners in order to discuss the multi-stakeholder processes in your project, and thus achieve a joint learning experience.

Training approach

- Visualized and interactive short input presentations and lectures
- Practical exercises and experiments
- Multi-stage simulations and current case studies
- Seminar reader

About Us and Our Training

We are part of GIZ's Academy for International Cooperation, providing access to high-quality training-related services in various sectors and competencies. The training is based on non-profit cost-recovery basis. "On-request" courses can be organized for groups to take place at different time and location.

On-line registration: <http://thai-german-cooperation.info/training.html>

Contact us:

Academy for International Cooperation, Bangkok
193/63 Lake Rajada Office Complex, 16th FL.,
New Ratchadapisek Rd., Klongtoey,
Bangkok 10110, Thailand

T +66 2 661 9273 ext. 34

F +66 2 661 9282

M +66 6 1523 2363

E training.bangkok@giz.de

I <http://training.thai-german-cooperation.info/>